CONFERENCE ON SHANTUNG ENDANGERED BY JAPANESE

Want Harbor Works As Treasury Note Securities

IS FUNDAMENTAL

Tokio Delegates Resort To Old Quibbling Methods

BY JOSEF W. HALL
Staff Correspondent the China Press

Peking, July 18.—The most important development to date in the Sino-Japanese negotiations for the return of the Shantung properties took place yesterday, when the Japanese commissioners presented an inventory of the Shantung Railway but which included properties appurtenant to the wharves, warehouses etc. in Tsingtao harbor. The Chinese representatives pointed out that the harbor equipment, in the nature of things, as well as in the sense of the Washington Treaty between Japan and China, is public property belonging to the Administration of the Port of Tsingtao. The Japanese agreed to allow the retrocession of the harbor works to be handled by the First Committee, which is dealing with public property (as, indeed, they had once before agreed at the first joint meeting on June 29), but with the significant reservation that the Tsingtao Harbor Works be included in securities for Treasury Notes to be issued in payment for the Shantung Railway upon its turn-over to China.

ENDANGERS TREATY

This unexpected Japanese demand endangers the entire agreement begun at Washington under the auspices of America and Great Britain and carried thus far. The Washington treaty plainly stipulates that China is not to be required to pay indemnification for the reversion of public properties inherited from the German Regime. The Tsingtao harbor works are to be made a part of and come under the administration of the Chinese Maritime Customs. It is plain that if they are potentially alienated by being made security for a foreign monetary obligation the basis upon which the agreement for retrocession is made is torn away.

Even more dangerous than the actual demand itself is the manner in which it was made by the Japanese delegates. The Japanese tendency to quibble over technicalities obviously contraventory of the spirit of reasonableness in their negotiations is well known. It is what broke up the Darien Conference with the Far Eastern Republic. The Japanese delegates based their sudden claim that the Tsingtao Harbor works are an essential part of the Shantung Railway on the fact that in that section of the Shantung Treaty dealing with the railway the harbor properties are incidentally mentioned. This is quibbling. They then offered to compromise on the question by allowing (as already agreed) the retrocession of the harbor works to go on under the control of the committee on public works, but upon the condition that the harbor works still be included among securities to be put up as bond for China's ultimate payment for the railroad. This is worse than quibbling, it is bargaining.

JAPANESE CLAIMS

The Japanese contention in regard to the retainment of Japanese officials in the railway until paid for, which almost broke up the negotiations at Washington and to which China agreed only upon the urgent request of the friendly powers, was based entirely upon the argument that the Japanese creditors are in justice entitled to protect, through their own representatives, the security which is given them from depreciation through poor management. If other properties and public properties at that, are to be dragged in to doubly protect the Japanese creditors, the entire basis upon which the agreement at Washington was worked out is repudiated, and the British and American plenipotentiaries at the Washington Conference are put in the position of having interceded to procure for Japan something which she was not sincere in asking.

The Chinese delegates on the joint commission took exception to the Japanese view, and no agreement was reached even though the commission sat for

IN her compartment on the Broadway Limited, Mildred Harris, formerly Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, denied she was to become the bride of Byron Munson, son of Arthur Knox Munson, Chicago Board of Trade man. HAGUE PARLEYS END, ALL POWERS IN NEW COMPACT

Agree To Withhold Assistance In Recovering Property

(Reuter's Service)

The Hague, July 20.—The final act of the Conference was the adoption of a resolution by all Governments, including the United States, not to assist their nationals to acquire properties in Russia, confiscated from the nationals of others, without the latter's consent.

An earlier resolution was designed to leave the door open for the Russian Government to resume the negotiations elsewhere but M. Litvinoff, in an interview, said that it was his opinon that it was no longer necessary to transmit to Moscow the proposals, which he made at yesterday's meeting, since there would be nobody left at the Hague to receive the reply.

M. Litvinoff denied that M. Lenin had been poisoned.

Pirates Attack Boat On Whangpoo

Another report of river piracy near a place called "18 Li" on the Whangpoo is carried in the Chinese press. The Yuen Tai Hong in Nantao, the report says, hired Ting Yue Sun's boat to transport 100 packages of cotton and 60 rolls of cloth from Minghong to Shanghai.

At about 6 p.m. Thursday, a pirate boat approached Ting's boat, and the pirates fired a shot to intimidate the boatmen and ordered them to stop. Then they jumped on board, took $30 and two gold finger rings from Ting's wife, and ten rolls of cloth, and sailed away in their own craft. At the Red Cross Hospital here it was discovered that the pirates had broken two of the woman's fingers in wresting the rings from her.

Dr. Max Kindler Faces $20,000 Fraud Charge In French Mixed Court

Dentist Is Charged By Police With Obtaining Huge Sum From Chinese Under False Pretenses

Charges of obtaining $20,000 under false pretenses are pending in the French Mixed Court against Dr. Max Kindler, a dentist, of 15A Markham Road, according to Inspector E. Traissac of the French Police. Dr. Kindler, according to Inspector Traissac, was arraigned in the French Mixed Court yesterday and released on bail of $14,000 when a remand was granted at the request of the police. No date has as yet been set for the adjourned hearing.

The complainant in the case, according to Inspector Traissac, is a Chinese, whose name is being withheld for the present. It was indicated that several other cases involving grave charges might hinge upon the present action.

Dr. Kindler, who has an office at 33 Rue du Consulat, was an Austrian before the war. He is now a Czecho-Slav, and therefore a French protegee, but in connection with the present case is said to have waived his rights in the French Consular Court.

CAME HERE IN 1914

According to Inspector Traissac, Dr. Kindler came to Shanghai from Singapore in 1914, and his actions here on several occasions have been the subjects of inquiry by the police. Upon his arrival here, he opened a dental office in Nanking Road. Some time afterwards, the Inspector said, he was arrested by the Austrian consular authorities and detained on board an Austrian gunboat on some mysterious charge. How this matter was finally disposed of is not known, Inspector Traissac said, but eventually Dr. Kindler was released and resumed his practice of dentistry.

In 1917, following evidence in the International Mixed Court in the case of a number of Chinese accused of passport forgeries, Dr. Kindler, the police say, made a full confession in which he admitted that he had taken a leading part in a plot for the wholesale manufacture of forged passports for the use of German army officers who had escaped from Tsingtao and Siberia and were seeking to return to Germany to rejoin the German forces.

Recently, Inspector Traissac said, Kindler has been associated with a number of wealthy Chinese in the operation of a place known as the Social Club on Boulevard de Montigny in which he was the only foreign member. On several occasions, it was said reports have reached the French police that the club was being conducted for unlawful purposes.

PLEADS EVERYTHING

Dr. Kindler last night, after conferring with his attorney, refused to comment on the statements of the French police. When first interviewed over the telephone, he laughed at everything, even claiming that he had not been arrested. Subsequently, however, after a conversation with his counsel, he decided on an entirety non-communicative attitude.

POLICE BELIEVE LIGHTNER MAY BE IN TSINGTAO

Fugitive Was Doomed When He Fled From America By Portland Criminals

Authorities of the Settlement were unwilling to believe last night that David Lightner alias D. L. Hibsman would be able to remain much longer in hiding, although three days have elapsed since Lightner and Ralph S. Boyd clambered through the roof of the American prison to liberty, which in Boyd's case was only of several hours duration.

Boyd, long a resident of the Far East, perfectly familiar with conditions and customs of the Chinese and presumably having at least a few intimates who might be expected to aid him in an hour of need, was brought back to the American prison within seven hours after his dramatic dash for liberty.

Lightner, who was arrested last Sunday by U. S. Marshal Thurston Porter on information received from the authorities of Portland, Oregon within the first hour of his arrival in China on the Norwegian steamer Luise Nielsen had no such advantages.

LIGHTNER'S HANDICAPS

When the Oregon fugitive slipped away from the prison early Wednesday morning he was hatless and he wore but the shabbiest of clothing. Not only was he completely ignorant of the geography of Shanghai and of everything in this part of the world, but he was entirely without means and it is not believed he had a single acquaintance here. Aside from this Lightner's physical appearance is extremely peculiar and is such that any casual reader of the descriptions of him that have been sent out broadcast would recognise him at sight as the Oregon man who is wanted. And still Lightner is free.

One slim chance exists that word will be received in the course of the day from Tsingtao that Lightner is there. This is based upon the supposition that Lightner had friends aboard the Norwegian steamer that brought him to Shanghai who have aided him.

NEW COMPLICATION

The Luise Nielsen sailed from Shanghai for Tsingtao on the morning of the day that Boyd and Lightner escaped. It is thought he may have fled to Woosung and caught the steamer as it was passing out, inducing friends aboard to conceal him on the ship. Acting on this supposition messages were dispatched yesterday to the Japanese authorities at Tsingtao to watch for the Luise Nielsen and to arrest Lightner if he is found aboard. The steamer is scheduled to arrive at the Shantung port this morning.

Should this theory prove to be correct a completely new complication in Lightner's case will arise. When he was arrested originally Lightner at once let it be known that he would vigorously resist extradition back to the United States and in doing

GERMANY MUST MAKE REPORTS ON EXPENDITURES

Allied Committee To Supervise Finance Bureau

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, July 21.—The Guarantees Committee which was despatched to Germany to make investigations on behalf of the Reparations Commission has formed sub-commissions to deal with revenue, expenditure, the flight of capital and statistics. It is also stipulated that Germany henceforth must supply regular information regarding revenue and expenditure while the Ministry of Finance must establish a central and mobile control, service the working of which will be supervised by the Committee. The German Government has signified its acceptance of the measures as not infringing German sovereignty.

London, July 20.—In connection with the report, widely published and enthusiastically commented upon in America, that the British Government will propose reduction of reparations, offering in return to remit the debt due to her, Reuter's Agency learns that there is much satisfaction in British official circles at the American press view of the British Government's attitude.

The Government favors a comprehensive solution of the problem of European indebtedness, including both the question of inter-Allied debts in Europe and ex-enemy reparations but further announcements are not likely until the Guarantees Committee has reported to the Reparations Commission.

GERMAN POLITICS

Berlin, July 20.—Following the recent co-operation between the Socialist parties, the Democrat, Center and People's parties have reached a common agreement with the object of stabilising and consolidating foreign and home policy on the basis of the existing Republican Constitution.

Catherine de Cathelineau, daughter of a French Papal Count, in a contest for a husband. The man is John L. Feeny, wealthy New York lawyer, who met the French girl while he was a Major in the A. E. F. She says he furnished money for her to come to America to wed him, but that he jilted her and instead married Miss McBain.

Spence And Chalmers Before British Court In Insurance Fraud Case

Basis Of Charges Of Conspiracy Is Explained By Prosecutor At Opening Hearing Before Magistrate King

Arthur M. Spence and George Y. Chalmers who with W. G. Wallace are held to be implicated in what the police characterise as a far-reaching insurance fraud, were called before Magistrate G. W. King in the British Police Court yesterday to answer charges of conspiracy.

Spence, Chalmers, Wallace and Frank Bowe, who is held a prisoner in the American jail, all conducted offices at No. 8 Kiangse Road and in the cases of the first three named the police allege that they set up in the fire insurance business with no other backing than a large number of policy forms and insurance literature. It is charged that the German American Insurance Company and the World Insurance Underwriters Company under the which the police say the defendants issued upwards three hundred policies, representing these companies to be American corporations, have no existence in fact.

Spence and Chalmers being British subjects are being tried in the British Courts. A claim to American citizenship that Wallace made was denied by the American Consulate and he therefore is being dealt with by the Mixed Court.

WALLACE NOW HELD

As Wallace is deeply involved in another charge, that of having obtained $588 worth of goods by false pretenses at Tientsin, and has been held in the Mixed Court for trial, the charge of conspiracy is not being pressed against him at the time.

At yesterday's hearing Mr. Rodger appeared representing the Chinese compradore who had been employed by Spence and Wallace and who, Mr. Rodger said had suffered the loss of some Tls. 5,000. Mr. R. G. Faithful appeared as prosecutor and Dr. Fisher was present on behalf of the accused.

Mr. Faithful said that since the adjournment of this case last week the Police had been very active making inquiries regarding the machinations of these two defendants with the result that they had a volume of evidence which after it was heard there would be no doubt in the Magistrate's mind that these men were guilty of the charge brought against them, namely, of conspiring with W. G. Wallace and others—at any rate one other—of defrauding the public by representing themselves as agents of two old established American insurance companies, the World Insurance Underwriters Company and the German American Insurance Company.

OUTLINES CASE

Mr. Faithful said that he would also call evidence to show that the agreement for the taking of the office at 8 Kiangse Road was signed by the two defendants. The compradore, who went into the business almost from the start would be called and evidence of the compradore's

TWELVE INJURED WHEN 150 COOLIES FIGHT JAPANESE

Free-For-All Fight Staged At Kungping Mill On Woosung Road

Eight Chinese and four Japanese were injured in a free-for-all fight Thursday at the Kungping Cotton Mill on the Woosung Military Road when some 150 Chinese battled an equal number of Japanese.

Up to a short time ago 200 Shantung coolies had been employed on construction jobs at the mill and they had been discharged. Losses of various implements and materials were reported to the Japanese and several Japanese yesterday undertook to search the huts in which the coolies were living.

The coolies objected and a skirmish followed which sent the Japanese back for reinforcements. Both sides were reinforced several times and stones, bricks, bamboo poles and other weapons were used.

At least a dozen are known to have been injured while several others were scratched and bruised.

A detail from Yangtszepoo Police Station was sent to the scene but the mobs had dispersed when they arrived. An hour after the Settlement police were on the scene, members of the Chinese police department arrived.

SEC'Y DENBY ON WAY HERE, VISIT TO LAST THREE DAYS

Party Will Reach City At Ten To night

MANY AFFAIRS

Chinese And Americans To Extend Greetings

Secretary of the Navy Edwin S. Denby and those who are coming to Shanghai with him now are en route on the special train that left Peking at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. It is understood that brief stops will be made at Tientsin and at Nanking and the train is due to arrive here at the Shanghai-Nanking station at 10 o'clock tonight. Before his departure from Peking yesterday Mr. Denby informed a news agency representative there that his stay in Shanghai would be of three days duration and this is taken to mean that the U. S. Transport Henderson with Mr. Denby and the entire party will sail on Tuesday or Wednesday proceeding on to Manila from here and thence to Guam. In this connection it is pointed out that several days ago Mr. Denby wired to the American Consulate here regretfully declining a large number of invitations that had been extended to him by Chinese and American organisations for affairs to take place after Monday evening.

By reason of the late hour of the special train's arrival and as it is thought the travelers will be weary from their trip nothing aside from an informal greeting will be given to Mr. Denby and those accompanying him tonight when they reach Shanghai.

PARTY TO MEET HIM

Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul-General with Admiral Strauss, who was with Secretary Denby in Peking and who preceded him to Shanghai arriving yesterday, and also with Admiral Bullard, Commander of the Yangtsze patrol, a number of officials and representative Americans and members of the party that arrived on the Transport Henderson will go to the station tonight to give welcome to the arriving party. Mr. and Mrs. Denby and their two young children will be taken from the station immediately after the train arrives to the American Consulate residence where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham through their stay here. Reservations to care for the other members of the party tonight also have been made.

The reception being given in honor of Mr. Denby at the Chinese Bureau of Foreign Affairs by General Ho Feng-ling, Military Governor of Shanghai and Sungkiang, Admiral H. K. Tu, Commander-in-Chief of the Chinese fleet, and Mr. Hsu Yuan, Special Commissioner for Foreign Affairs for Kiangsu, is to take place between the hours of 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A large number of invitations have been issued for this, the single event being given in honor of the visiting American cabinet officer by the Chinese.

ADDITIONAL AFFAIRS

After this reception Mr. Denby and his family will spend the rest of the day quietly, but will attend a dinner with several others of the visiting party that is to be given Sunday evening at the American Consulate residence by Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham.

On Monday afternoon opportunity is to be afforded to the general American community to meet Mr. Denby at the reception that is to be given between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock at the Columbia Country Club. On behalf of the Board of Governors of the Club Mr. Cunningham, Consul-General, has extended a public invitation to all Americans to attend this reception which is being arranged by the Columbia Country Club jointly with the American Woman's Club. Mr. D. J. Lewis, Secretary of the American Chamber of Commerce said yesterday that the limit number of reservations for the American Community dinner had nearly been reached, though a few more probably can be received today. The dinner is being given by the American Chamber of Commerce and the American Association of China at the Carlton Monday evening and is the last of the events scheduled in connection with the general program of entertainment for the visitors as Mr. Denby has declined invitations for subsequent affairs.

Gen. Lu Denies Has Enlarged His Army

Reuter's Agency is informed by the Chekiang Military Reorganisation Bureau that there is absolutely no foundation for the reports, published in a Peking telegram of June 11 as current in Peking and emanating from the South, that General Lu Yung-hsiang had increased the number of his troops and had been in communication with Dr. Sun Yat-sen with a view to inviting him to come to Chekiang to head a new Southern confederacy. The Bureau points out that Chekiang on the contrary is earnestly endeavoring to carry out disbandment.

Nationals Control 12 Irish Counties

(China Press Service)

Dublin, July 20.—The Provisional Government's statement declares that the national army forces control twelve counties with five others divided. Three, including Cork County, are controlled by the Republicans.

The statement adds that the safety and future welfare of the nation depends upon the power of the irregulars being broken.

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 20.—An Irish Government statement declares that the National forces are supreme in the whole of Leinster. They are still encountering opposition in Donegal and Sligo and are having harder work in Galway, Limerick and Tipperary while Waterford, Cork, Kerry and Mayo are suffering from subjection to the irregulars.

The National forces are also supreme in Monaghan, Cavan, Roscommon, Leitrim and Clare.

The Government explain that this statement is issued in view of the suggestions for peace based on a compromise, put forward by the Labor Party. They say that the safety and welfare of the nation depend on breaking the power of the irregulars.

The Labor Party's peace move, however, has failed. Only eleven members of the Labor Party attended the general conference of members of Parliament, summoned for this morning, and the plan has therefore been abandoned.

Roving bands of irregulars are active around Dublin and a goods train on the main line from Dublin to Belfast was wrecked this morning. The northern train service is suspended.

Reports received in Dublin indicate that the attack by the National forces is developing on each extremity of the irregulars' line, extending from Limerick to Waterford.

Troops from Kilkenny reached the environs of Waterford on Tuesday evening but the approach to the center of the city was barred by the River Suir, the bridges of which were impassable.

They bombarded the irregulars' positions in the barracks and the jail but the response was feeble.

Fighting was still in progress at Limerick yesterday evening.

The casualties at Limerick up to the present are 20 killed and 40 wounded, mostly civilians.

London, July 19.—An unconfirmed report is current in Dublin that the Republicans at Cork have sent delegates to the Free State headquarters in the south to discuss peace.

Printing Strike Menaces England

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 20.—Stoppage of the whole printing trade of the provinces is threatened as a result of the action of the Typographical Association in taking a ballot, which rejected the award of the Industrial Court on the question of the reduction of wages.

Sir David Shackleton, Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Labor, told the Joint Industrial Council, at which attempts to reach an agreement had failed, that the Association's repudiation of the award struck at the very root of the wages negotiations and the Ministry of Labor would take no further part in the matter.

Soviets To Finance Cotton In Turkestan

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, July 20.—A telegram from Riga states that the Russian Soviets have approved a scheme for founding a private industrial bank, mainly for the purpose of financing the planting and production of cotton in Turkestan. The capital will be furnished by Russian and German groups of manufacturers.

this he raised a question which never definitely has been decided by legal pronouncement—whether extradition from China to the United States is possible under existing laws. It generally has been held that extradition from Japan cannot easily be effected and therefore if Lightner is arrested in Tsingtao whether he can be extradited from that port, administered by the Japanese, is a wholly new question.

LIGHTNER DOOMED MAN

Developments of yesterday disclosed that Lightner's flight from Oregon, leaving bondsmen there with G.$5,000 at stake to hold the sack, was prompted not wholly because he feared impending trial and imprisonment there, but because Lightner knew his very life was in danger. He was one time a notorious figure in Portland's underworld and he learned that this underworld which he understood so thoroughly had marked him as a doomed man—that criminals once his familiars whom he had betrayed had sworn to avenge themselves.

Lightner long had been known to the Portland authorities as a trafficker in narcotic drugs of various kinds, particularly opium. J. L. Grum, formerly a policeman in Portland, was his associate in the exploit that led to his arrest and subsequent flight to China. The two are said to have assaulted two Japanese while posing as officers of the law taking away from them $20,000 worth of opium.

Reports say it was while escaping with this booty that the two were placed under arrest by bonafide police officers who seized the drug.

Caught in the meshes of a net of conclusive circumstantial evidence with the fair certainty of a long prison term in prospect, it is said that Lightner turned on the members of the drug ring with whom he had formerly worked. With the hope of gaining some degree of immunity for himself it is said he turned informer and supplied to the Portland authorities information that enabled them to proceed to break up the drug ring of Portland.

TURNED INFORMER

A single disclosure that Lightner made is said to have enabled the Portland police to seize G.$100,000 worth of opium and to make several important arrests. This was done some time after Lightner, by employing professional bondsmen, had succeeded in getting bail in the sum of G.$5,000.

But the Portland drug ring then learned of Lightner's treachery and when the word reached Lightner that he would be called to account by the criminals with whom he had been working, he realised his danger and it was then that he fled first to Astoria, Oregon and then aboard the Shanghai-bound Norwegian steamer Luise Nielsen on which he signed up as a coal passer.

Japan Endangers Shantung Meet

two hours after the conclusion of formal proceedings. Dr. C. T. Wang returned to the Japanese delegates the detailed inventory of railway properties which included the harbor properties, and the session adjourned with the understanding that each delegation is at liberty to publish its own version of the disagreement.

The Japanese willingness to make "compromising compromises" to gain their point, as well as their stubbornness over the matter, would seem to indicate that what they did yesterday is in harmony with a prearranged plan.

If that is the case Dr. Wang had as well save his time, and that of his assistants. For of Japanese quibbling and bargaining, when quibbling and bargaining is their game, there is no end.

Chartered Company Willing To Sell Out In South Africa

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 20.—Following on the negotiations at Capetown between the directors of the Chartered Company and the Union Government with regard to the terms which would be acceptable to the Chartered Company in the event of Southern Rhodesia deciding to enter the Union in the forthcoming referendum, the Chartered Company has called a special meeting for July 28 to confirm the arrangement made with General Smuts.

The arrangement provides that, in return for surrender of its rights to unalienated land, railways, public buildings, etc., the Chartered Company shall receive the sum of £6,836,500.

The Chartered Company, however, shall retain the whole of its mineral and commercial rights and interests and the whole of its investments other than railways.

The Crown has waived all claim against the Chartered Company in respect to extraordinary military expenditure, incurred in the war without prejudice to its claim if the incorporation of Southern Rhodesia is not carried by the referendum.

The whole agreement is conditional on Southern Rhodesia actually forming part of the Union not later than March 31, 1924.

Secretary Denby Leaves The Capital

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 21.—The American Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Edwin Denby, and party left for Shanghai this morning by special train and were seen off by numerous American, foreign and Chinese diplomats, naval and Military officers and prominent citizens, including Dr. W. W. Yen, the Prime Minister, Admirals Li Ting-hsin, Sah Chen-ping and Chen Eng-tao, and Mr. Schurman, the American Minister.

Chinese and American bands and guards of honor were in attendance. Mr. Li Fong and Mr. Wang Ling-kou, counsellors of the Waichiaopu, will accompany the party first to Shanghai and from there to Hangchow. Prior to his departure, Mr. Denby, in farewell messages expressed his delight at the visit and high appreciation of the courtesy of the Chinese Government and the most friendly attitude of Chinese officials and civilians which made his visit a real delight.

Hopes For Ending Rail Strike Vanish

(China Press Service)

Chicago, July 20.—The Railroads and the strikers settled down to a test of strength with the prospects for immediate strike settlement gone. The fuel shortage is hitting the roads to such an extent that several lines have reported that their supplies of coal are nearly exhausted. Approximately 247 trains have been cancelled or are about to be cancelled.

Buffalo, July 20.—Policemen armed with riot guns and under orders to shoot to kill, rode the street cars starting out today following Mayor Schwab's warning to striking carmen that further rioting would bring serious consequences.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—Approximately six hundred clerks on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad headquarters have struck.

Duluth, Minn., July 20.—It is announced that passenger traffic on the Northern Pacific has been cut fifty percent.

TREASURY BILLS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, July 21.—Five percent Treasury bills, aggregating Y.88,500,000, for the conversion of the five percent bills, maturing on September 1, will be issued from August 2 to August 4, at 93¼. They will be redeemable on December 31, 1927.

Peking Disposes Of Some Armed Robbers

(China Mail Service)

Peking, July 18.—The citizens of the north city were treated to one of those exemplary lessons in morals which usually are staged so soon after breakfast as to make that meal just a little restless. In this case, it was a long procession of troops led by an officer on a white charger and eleven men chained together in open Peking carts. The latter were robbers who were being brought in from Tungchow to the Yamen of the Metropolitan Governor after which they would be taken out and executed.

Doubtless this Chinese system of manifest justice and punishment has its merits but for foreigners who, perhaps, have no intention or desire of wandering off the straight and narrow, it is disconcerting to say the least to find oneself in the midst of such a parade.

Income Tax Dep't To Be Transferred

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 21.—The President has approved the suggestion of the Ministry of Finance to abolish the Income-tax Department and transfer its work to the Tax Department of the Ministry of Finance.

Peking, July 21.—The President has dispatched Mr. Hu Leng-hsiang to carry his condolence to General Chih Chi-hyuan, the Tuchun of Kiangan, on the occasion of the death of his father. Mr. Han Kuo-chun will act in the same capacity for the Cabinet.

FOR REMOVING SUPERFLUOUS HAIR.

No woman who has any sense of beauty will deny that superfluous hair is one of the greatest drawbacks to good looks.

Realising this, women of all times have put themselves to any expense, and have endured considerable pain and discomfort in order to rid themselves of this great disfigurement.

Nowadays electrolysis is a prevalent "cure" for this evil, but in reality this process involves a great deal of unnecessary expense, waste of time and pain.

The simplest quickest, and most effective treatment can easily be carried out by any sufferer, in the privacy of her home. This is the recipe:

Procure about 1 oz. powdered pheminol from your chemist; mix a sufficient quantity with a few drops of water into a stiff paste. Apply this carefuly and thoroughly to the hair you wish to remove, and allow the paste to dry. In a few minutes it can be gently scraped away. The skin is left absolutely free from hair, and should then be carefully washed in warm water, and if desired, lightly dusted with a little talcum powder. (Advt.)

Spence And Chalmers Before British Court

brother-in-law, who was previously in the Sun Insurance Company, and whose experience was therefore useful to the accused, would also be produced.

"We would tell the Court how many policies were issued, the amount of premium paid and the amount of premium unpaid," he continued. The insured were given 60 days grace to pay the premium. Should there have been a claim by reason of any fire the insured would never have been paid. An advertisement was inserted by the compradore under the instructions of the accused. This advertisement purported to show that these companies were old and well established and had capital of a million dollars. All this served to show, said Mr. Faithful, the modus operandi of these companies well knowing that these companies did not exist. Mr. Faithful asked the magistrate, after he had heard the evidence, to state that a prima facie case had been made out and to commit the accused for trial before a judge and jury. If there was no principal there could be no agent.

WILEY WITNESS

Mr. Herbert A. Wiley, Manager for China of the American Foreign Insurance Association, said he was an American citizen from the state of Massachussets. He had heard of these two companies as operating in China and not in America. There was no reference in the latest issue of insurance statistics giving any information that these were American companies. If they were genuine American and the accused appointed agents, the appointment would be by letter with a power of attorney and an agreement. Witness had been in the insurance business for 24 years.

What arrangements have you got in America to satisfy the authorities there as to the financial position of the companies? There is a practice in the United States for an insurance company when doing insurance business to report and receive a licence from the Insurance Commissioner of the State wherein it operates. A sworn statement must be filed of the Company's entire operations transacted within the period of the current year. In the absence of any sworn return they are denied the privilege of transacting insurance company business in and State.

Supposing these companies were genuinely established in America, they would be quite competent to appoint agents here? And any agencies created here would have to be registered in America? If a company purporting to be an American company must necessarily be registered within the State of its origin.

The Magistrate—Is there any record of agencies made in China kept in America? Not to my knowledge, except as they may be registered in the Consulates of their country.

Magistrate—Then, it is not necessary to register these agencies in the States? If is not necessary to register them in the United States. I know of no law requiring registration in China. I am of the opinion that the Insurance Commissioner must have the complete transactions of any Company and of all liabilities assumed. If it is transacting business in China it must automatically show its results in the reports to the Insurance Commissioner. It is a practice of American companies to register with the Consulates.

CLERK SAW AD

Mr. Faithful: How was your attention drawn to the existence of these two companies?—One of my clerks showed me the advertisement in the Chinese press stating that these two companies were American. At that time I investigated into the origin of these companies but without success.

Continuing, witness said there was a volume called the "Standard Fire Insurance Table" which was a recognised return, showing all the companies in the United States. On page 109 there was a list of new companies formed or projected. These two companies were not mentioned in this list.

Supposing these accused were appointed agents they would be in a position to show a power of attorney or an agreement appointing them as agents?—Absolutely.

TELL OF DEALINGS

Mr. C. W. Porter, secretary of the Shanghai Mutual Telephone Company, said an application for a telephone installation for 8 Kiangse Road was applied for on May 16 last by W. G. Wallace, and in accordance with the application the installation was made and the contract signed by Chalmers. The bills had been paid up till June last and also the installation fees.

Mr. H. B. Joseph, Manager of the Office Appliance Company, said he had sold a typewriter to the World Underwriters Insurance Company, half the purchase price being paid by Wallace, who signed an agreement that if the balance was not paid by a certain date, he Company could remove the machine. The balance was not paid on the date due and the typwriter was taken away. Later on, a telephone message was received from Spence by the Office Appliance Company, who complained that he had a large number of policies to type out and was acting, he said, for Wallace. He requested that the typewriter be returned, and this was done when the Office Appliance Company received the balance of the sale price.

Magistrate (to Mr. Faithful): Why did you say that these companies were not paying their debts? You have no right to make comments unless you are prepared to prove them. You have two witnesses who state that their bills had been paid.

Mr. Faithful: They have paid some of their debts. I suggest that it is not the crux of the case.

Magistrate: It is not fair to make a comment unless you are prepared to prove it.

An assistant from a Chinese newspaper office spoke of a foreigner calling to place an advertisement for a compradore and agents for newly established American insurance companies. The advertisement appeared and was paid for. Two other advertisements were inserted by the compradore of the insurance companies on May 21 and May 23 under the name of Wallace, and these advertised the two insurance companies with a capital of a million and a half of gold dollars. These advertisements were also paid for.

The Japanese delegates submitted five articles as definitions of the above. After prolonged discussion the two delegations were not able to reach an agreement and the matter was finally referred to the sub-committee on railway properties for study and examination. In case the sub-committee fails to reach an agreement the matter would be referred back to the Commission.

COAL SHORTAGE IN U. S. REACHES ACUTE STAGE

Railways, Public Services, And Private Firms Hit

(Reuter's Service)

New York, July 20.—The effect of the coal strike is beginning to be felt. The railways, public services and manufacturers are reported to be clamoring for coal. At Hampton Roads the stock is almost exhausted and bunkering of ships is being held up. The situation is aggravated by shortage of trucks as a result of the railway shopmen's strike.

Washington, July 20.—The Governors of 26 coal mining States have telegrahed to President Harding, pledging their co-operation in the Government's efforts to reopen the coal-mines, but the Governors of North Carolina and Virginia have refused to acquiesce in the President's request, declaring that there are no labor troubles in their States.

Mr. Hooper, the Chairman of the Railroad Labor Board, announced today that all efforts to settle the shopmen's strike had failed.

Sporadic disturbances continue in various parts of the country but they are not sufficiently serious to warrant the calling out of militia.

The railway strike is leading to cancellation of many trains and gradual slowing up of time-tables throughout the country.

(China Press Service)

Raleigh, N. C. July 20.—Governor Morrison telegraphed President Harding that he would not co-operate with the federal government in the protection of reopened mines.

He said that he considered the interference in such labor situations as inimical to the best interests of the nation.

Washington, July 20.—President Lewis of the United Mine Workers, characterising the present strike, said that it was the "severest struggle in which labor had ever engaged." He declared: "The attitude of the mine workers remains unchanged. Our ranks are unbroken and will remain so."

Postmaster General Work announced: "Any menaced danger to the delivery of mails arising out of the strike on the railroads has passed."

Bellaire, Ohio, July 20.—The Pittsburgh Vein coal operators Association controlling more than one third of the coal mines in Ohio will not attempt to reopen their mines under the Harding proposal of federal protection.

It is indicated that some small coal operators in Eastern Ohio may attempt to resume production under Harding's plan.

A United Mine Workers official said that if any attempt was made to reopen mines before a complete settlement of the strike, all the mine maintenance men would be forced to leave the mines. Disaster to the mines would follow the cessation of pumping.

Hillsboro, Ill. July 20.—The president of the Illinois Coal operators Association said that there was no prospect of the immediate resumption of coal production in Illinois.

Lansing, Mich., July 20.—Governor Groesbeck has prepared a telegram for President Harding asking the federal government to sanction the plan to take over and operate Michigan coal mines under state control.

He says there is no ill feeling on the part of Michigan strike men and that they had walked out principally because miners of other states and the unions forced them to.

Cleveland, July 20.—The municipal light plant has only three days supply of coal left. The forecast is that it will be forced to shut down.

Jute Fabrics

In his report on the jute fabrics, Mr. J. A. Fredericks writes as follows:

Prices of both Heavy C's 2¼ and 2½ lbs. Gunny bags continue mominal. Some small Chinese holders sold small lots of the latter quality at Tls. 198 but since their climination from the market other holders do not seem keen on selling at under Tls. 203.

Hessians have been done at Tls. 116 in more than one lot.

SHIP STRIKE

A report from Paoting states that the road from there to Koo Yang, a distance of 120 li, has been opened for motor traffic and a regular bus line started from the 17th instant. Last year the American Red Cross China Famine Relief spent about $50,000 repairing the road from Paoting to Tientsin and completed practically all but the end near Paoting. They were prevented in this by the authorities who put every obstacle in their way, apparently with the idea of keeping some sort of a monopoly on traffic such as the above bus line.

SHANGHAI BEATS TRANSPORT HENDERSON NINE 7-5 WHEN SAILORS' PITCHER WEAKENS

Overcome 4-0 Lead In Fourth Innings On Four Walks And As Many Hits

Sailor Wilson, the classy little pitcher of the American transport Henderson nine lost his own game yesterday afternoon on the local field after his teammates had a 4-0 lead over Shanghai in the fourth inning. Wilson walked four men in a row after two were out in that fatal frame; he unfolded two wild pitches; he allowed four singles, and then his shortstop added to the damage by a high and wide throw to first. The local men piled up seven runs before the third out was counted. The final score was 7-5.

The Transport men started their scoring in the first inning on clean hitting and clever baseball. Wilson walked and scored on Stanton's triple to left field, and the latter came in on Halipin's single through Holliday. The game went without further count until the decisive fourth. The sailors in their first half counted two more on a series of errors by Shanghai and one lonesome hit. Maloney muffed a high fly near the third base line but retrieved himself immediately by catching the runner at second when the latter had started to steal before Mal began his pitching motion. Lowe fanned, but Hirsh dropped the ball, and Hopkins muffed his peg to first. Butler followed with a single through short, only to be forced at second, Scott to Smith, while Wilson went safe at first on a fielders' choice. The latter scored when Wynn muffed and chased a fly in center-right field.

NAVY HAD GOOD START

The game up to this stage looked all for the transport men. Wilson, their twirler was working like a big leaguer. He fanned the Shanghai side in the first inning, and two more in the second. He had more speed than Maloney, and a nice hook that seemed to break up honest swings for singles into little scratch grounders. The local men had touched him up but once, and then for a lucky little hit through his own territory.

The sailors started working on Shanghai in the fourth in confident fashion. Maloney and Hopkins were easy outs on infield grounders. Scott followed with a hard driven ball to third which he had well beaten to first for a safety. Butler, however, who retrieved the ball after Halipin knocked it down, threw it wild to first and Scott travelled on to second. Then Wilson weakened.

A wild pitch put Scott on third, and Hirsh, Smith and Hubbard walked forcing Scott in. Another wild pitch brought Hirsh in. And then Jenkins walked. Holliday singled through short and scored Smith, Wynn singled to center scoring Hubbard and Jenkins, and advancing Holliday to third. Maloney drove one through Halipin and Holliday and Wynn tallied. Hopkins made the third out Wilson to Stanton.

Wilson came back after his rest between innings and held Shanghai for easy outs. The Navy men added their fifth run from Stanton's single through Smith, a steal, Maloney's wild heave, and Scott's low throw to first which Hopkins failed to hold.

An admission fee of $1.00 will be charged for all spectators, including members. It will be permitted, however, Manager Gallop said last night for fans attending the games today and tomorrow to donate as much more than the stipulated dollar as they chose. The cause is a good and a worthy one, the game should be a hummer, for the Huron nine has always played the Shanghai men to a standstill, and are certain to put up an afternoon's entertainment worth real admission. The Henderson band will provide music.

George Sisler

GEORGE Sisler, the star first baseman of the St. Louis Browns, leads in almost every branch of the sport and seems to be trying to win a pennant single-handed. He is first in batting averages in both leagues, first in runs scored in both leagues, first in total hits in both leagues, first in total bases in both leagues, first in three-base hits in both leagues, first in stolen bases in both leagues, first in both leagues to make 100 hits this season and close to the top in hitting two baggers and home runs. He's hitting above .400—but outside of that there's little noteworthy in his performances.

Baer SAYS 'BUGS': GINK GREAT MEDAL PLAYER

Great Champ Said It With Flowers; They Answered Him With Vegetables

Old paper helmet—

Now that my man Bumps McStabb is out after Gink's toupee, you are trying to hide Gink behind a country club.

Bumps was a tough fragment of the population. They hung his old man with a rope made out of pretzels.

When Gink was umpiring the Roughtown pennant battle, the crowd met him after the game and counted the score out on his head, using pop bottles for chalk.

They had his teeth rattling like a Rock Island freight.

He left the ring like he fought in it—flat!

GUS WHOO.

Gink refuses to talk about his past career on the squared canvas.

He has had his neck washed and ironed and is now mixing in the best society. He is climbing some of the best porches on Long Island.

He has a bag of golf clubs that are the finest in the country.

He holds his niblick in his right hand like a knife at a dinner.

Then he has a nice big chunk of lead pipe for foursomes and a blackjack for tournaments. A jimmy, two corkscrews and some assorted crutches complete his pack of golf weapons.

There is no situation that can arise in golf that Gink can't meet with the proper etiquette.

He ain't such a good golfer yet. He thinks that the flag on the greens is a no-trespassing sign and that the cups should have handles on em, but after watching him try to whang his way out of the weeds, you would admit that he is a diamond in the rough.

His best blow is the masse exit, but he is very good on the slice edtour. He also is a master of the subtracted putt and the imported stymie. Any man who handles these four athletic phenomenases is qualified to put on diver's shoes and give Man-o-War a fifty-foot start.

If Gink was a potato bug, he would give a centipede a thousand foot start. He always played fair. Why should a man who is shooting butlers in the best society, annoy himself with bums like Bumps McStabb?

Gink is no longer a bindle stiff. The gay cats and the pete men will miss him in the jungle, but he can longer afford to mix with the mob.

He is now a golfer and that means he must wear knickerbockers and wiggle his little finger when drinking coffee.

PARBURY AND HUMPHREYS WIN HONG DOUBLES TITLE FOR ASIATIC PETROLEUM CO.

Defeat W. P. And D. Roberts Of St. John's In Three Sets, 7-5, 6-0, 6-1

Messrs. C. G. Humphreys and L. Parbury representing the Asiatic Petroleum Co., Ltd. in the Hong Doubles championship play in the Shanghai Lawn Tennis Association, won the season's title yesterday afternoon at the Country Club over Messrs. W. P. Roberts and D. Roberts of St. John's University in three straight sets, 7-5, 6-0, 6-1.

The play was marked by steady tennis, mixed with flashes of excellent tactics on either side. Parbury for the winning side was undoubtedly the best man in the game though W. P. Roberts for the losing pair played an exceptionally strong game. The latter's play in the first set promised to hold up his team for a closely fought match but the attack of Humphreys and Parbury was too strong for him, and play slowed down in the latter two sets to comparatively easy wins for the Asiatic Petroleum pair.

In the first set the games were divided in turn until the score stood at five-all, when Humphreys and Parbury on Humphreys' service took the eleventh game on four straight points to love. The next and last game, which D. Roberts served, went to Parbury and his partner with the Roberts pair counting but 15. The set score was 7-5.

The second set was a walkaway for the winning pair. Games for the most part were quickly decided. The fifth went to one deuce and the sixth to a second deuce but Parbury and Humphreys managed to tighten up when the situation threatened. They took the set at 6-love.

The final set found the Roberts pair taking but one game, the third. They gave the winning team a hard fight for the second game which went to four deuces before Humphreys and Parbury managed to pull out the winner. Other games were all for the new champions.

Pengkalan Durian Estate Meeting

The second annual general meeting of shareholders in the Pengkalan Durian Estate (1921), Ltd., was held yesterday afternoon at the offices of the secretaries and general managers, Messrs. J. M. Bisset and Company, 1 The Bund.

The chairman's speech follows:

"Gentlemen.—In the absence of our Chairman, Mr. L. E. Canning, who is at present on leave, the pleasure is afforded me of addressing you this afternoon.

"The report and accounts have been in your hands for the past few days, and with your permission I will follow the usual procedure and take them as read. The present Company, as you are aware, commenced business on August 30, 1921, and the report and accounts cover the working for seven months only.

AREA

"There is no change to record in either the producing or planted areas. The 71 acres planted in 1917 were brought into the tapping round in April last. About 10 acres of the swampy area have been held on lease by Malays for Padi growing. A small rent has been charged for the use of this land.

PRODUCTION

During the seven months this Company has been in existence we harvested 93,760 lbs. The crop fell short of the estimate owing to considerable areas having to be rested on account of poor bark renewal and also to the fact that several of the field have been tapped on an upper panel. The latter fact also partly explains the considerable fall in the yield per tapping.

COSTS

"It will be noted that our 'cost all in' per lb. works out at S.$40.19 cents against last year's cost of S.$54.83 cents. Every effort is being made to still further reduce the cost of our Rubber; this, however, is a problem owing to the smallness of the Estate and Output, and to the difficulty of still further reducing already finely cut overhead charges. A comparatively small estate like Pengkalan cannot hope for such very sweeping reductions in 'all in cost' as have been possible when the yield per coolie is large.

"Thinning out has been carried on during the period under review and further work in this direction is necessary. The whole Estate has been kept in a clean condition. The average cost per acre per month was S.$49.91 cents inclusive of cutting back encroaching boundaries, upkeep of demarcating drains and cost of tools.

"Clean weeding has now been discontinued on the advice of the visiting agent and the manager. Lalang of course will be dug out whenever it exists or appears. Other wood growth at this stage of the development of the Estate is expected to do much good by preventing the wash caused by heavy rains and improving the soil by being dug in together with fallen leaves.

DISEASE AND PESTS

"The Estate has been very free from disease. Some trouble has been experienced with bark-eating caterpillars which attack the tapped surface of the trees, but this was a small matter and was effectively dealt with.

LABOR

"No difficulty was experienced in obtaining labor for Estate work and the force was contented in spite of lowered wages and reduced contract rates. The cost of labor might be reduced by employing Tamils but this would necessitate building lines which unfortunately our present finances do not permit.

HEALTH

"Health on the Estate has been good as in the past.

MANAGEMENT

"Major P. Fitzwarine Smith has continued to manage the Estate single-handed very efficiently, and on your behalf the Board accords him a hearty vote of thanks.

"Bungalows have been kept in good repair throughout the year.

"Coolie lines are in good condition and there is ample accommodation for present requirements. Mr. V. A. Taylor visited Pengkalan in February, 1922 and rendered a Report on the condition of the Estate and its working in which he stated that it is evident that work on the Estate is very thoroughly supervised; but Gentlemen, I am sorry to say the report was a rather startling eye-opener in some respects, in that it makes it evident that our trees have been overworked, and bark renewal is unsatisfactory, because of the want of fertilisers in the impoverished soil. However, suggestions were made which we are promised will bring about a better condition of things, and our thanks are due to Mr. Taylor, also to our agents, Messrs. Barker and Co., Ltd., and our Secretaries and general managers, Messrs. J. P. Bisset and Co., for the manner in which our interests have been cared for.

ACCOUNTS

"Turning now to the accounts, you will see from the Working Account that the seven months' working has resulted in a loss of Taels 4,898.01 which is transferred to Profit and Loss Account. In this latter account, after debiting Audiors' and directors' fees and writing off preliminary expenses, there remains a balance at debit of Taels 8,884.08, which it is proposed to carry forward to next year. As this is a new Company the Directors' Fees have to be fixed by you in general meeting, and it will later on be proposed that the Fees be fixed at Tls. 1,800 for division amongst the three Directors. It is of course quite impossible to foretell the result of the current year's working, but I can say that an average selling price for the year of 30 cents should produce sufficient to cover all the estimated expenditure on both Capital and Revenue.

"The crop for the current year is estimated at 176,000 lbs.

"I have to express the disappointment of the Directors at the very poor response from shareholders to their invitation to take up further shares in the Company. Only 28 shareholders out of 124 availed themselves of the opportunity, contributing a total of Taels 8,584. Had every shareholder taken up one new share, costing one tael, for every old share held, the Company would have started the current year with cash in hand instead of an overdraft with our bankers.

"That appears to be all that there is for me to say, Gentlemen, but if any of you have any questions to ask I shall be pleased to answer them to the best of my ability.

Bill Wise Says

"Along about this time of the year many merchants like to pull in their horns and say: "What's the use of advertising? Most of the people are out of town anyhow, and the rest don't feel like shopping in the hot weather." As a matter of fact, not more than 10% of the population of any city is out of town on any one day. Those who remain have as much money as usual, and they need food, clothing and other things just as much as ever."

And so, stifling her dreams, yielding to "duty", she married a drunken beast.
Then one day, they found her husband murdered in an Indian jungle. Who was guilty?
A story that sweeps through the heart in a storm of emotion. Touched with the spell of the East. Tender with young love and blossom time in England.
As a play, a nation-wide sensation. As a picture, a new and amazing revelation of the charm and dramatic genius of Elsie Ferguson.

Once More The Rockefeller Foundation

SUBSTANTIAL evidence of the interest of the Rockefeller Foundation in the development of scientific education in China, and of its policy in so far as possible to support Chinese-operated schools, is given in the announcement made by Mr. E. R. Embree, Secretary of the Foundation, that its China Medical Board will contribute one half of the expenses of buildings, equipment and additional salaries for instruction in science at the Southeastern University in Nanking and at Nankai College in Tientsin. The amount to be contributed to each institution by the China Medical Board is set at $125,000 for buildings and equipment, and $5,000 per year for three years for additional salaries, both sums in Chinese currency. Each of the schools is to provide a like amount.

In addition to this contribution, the Board agrees to send to each institution a visiting professor in one of the premedical science departments for one or two years, and to pay all expenses connected with the first appointment. Through its Peking office the China Medical Board also will render any assistance possible in planning the buildings, purchasing equipment, organising the science courses, etc.

The immediate purpose of the China Medical Board in making these grants, it is stated, is to encourage scientific instruction in the schools in China, especially in what may be called the premedical subjects. The eventual aim is to encourage the advance of medical education in China, particularly under strictly Chinese auspices, and to promote the growth of Chinese institutions interested in the development of science. With these objects in view, the first large grants, as outlined above, have been made to purely Chinese schools, and on conditions such that the aid given by the Board will be supplemented by substantial pledges from Chinese sources.

Nankai College and the Southeastern University have been formally notified of these pledges by Mr. Embree. The China Medical Board has, for several months, been making a careful study of scientific educational conditions in China, ending with a special visit to this country by Mr. Embree and an extended trip by him and Dr. H. S. Houghton, Director of the Peking Union Medical College and the representative in China of the China Medical Board.

This substantial additional support of two virile and progressive institutions will be welcomed throughout the land as further evidence of the profound and friendly interest with which the Rockefeller Foundation is viewing the cause of scientific education in China.

New Wine In Old Bottles

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

IT is said that a rich man in Chicago has bought certain glands, or a gland, from another human being, and had those glands transplanted to his own body, to increase physical vigor.

That is strange, not new, to take from your fellowman a supply of energy that you lack. What science does now, superstition used to do. Men in the past have drunk the blood of young children, to keep alive departing vigor. And all nations, at various times, have sacrificed young children to an imaginary god, supposed to be fond of that kind of tribute.

To see women clinging desperately to youth is pitiful, but you understand it. Women rely on men's attention, and men desire youth.

But for an intelligent male adult to rob the body of another in order to plant in his own body more trouble, more of the turmoil that disturbs contemplation and makes life a nuisance, is doubly strange and trebly pitiful.

Crime and whiskey have gone hand in hand in the United States since Jefferson's day. Now drugs replace whiskey in the partnership with crime.

Dr. Squire, medical head of the great Sing Sing prison, says that new convicts show among drug victims an increase of 41 percent.

Whiskey EVENTUALLY destroys the normal sense after first destroying self respect. Drugs destroy both SWIFTLY.

President Harding sees as many Americans as care to visit him, shakes hands with them, gives each a pleasant, welcoming smile from under his bushy eyebrows. The Postmaster General says: The President shakes hands with forty per minute IF THERE IS NO MUSIC playing, and with more if there IS music."

There's a suggestion for employers of labor and manufacturers of talking machines.

Ten thousand years ago rulers making war, anxious to get results, knew enough to give their soldiers music, fancy uniforms and the right to loot. The way to make work successful is to make it attractive.

Our kings of industry have not yet even learned to combine music with heavy work to make it lighter.

To make INDUSTRY ATTRACTIVE is the next great problem. Once achieved, that will do more than all the laws combined to make this a cheerful world.

This writer, among other valuable domestic colleagues, includes Margaret and Ellen, sisters that work in the kitchen. Before they start the cooking, they set John McCormick to singing something sad and powerful about Ireland. While they are working, he is singing. The results are admirable.

What you can't prove otherwise the microscope and chemistry will prove for you. Mr. Campbell, of Los Angeles, charged with failure to support a ten-months-old girl, said, "It is not my child, at least, I have no proof that it is mine."

A scientist tested the blood of the man and of the ten-months-old baby, compared the two fluids, corpuscles—red and white—and announced positively that that particular infant was the child of that particular man. The man accepted the verdict and agreed to support the child.

Nature is wonderful and very deep, as the Katzenjammer Kids said at the edge of the Grand Canyon. You can identify a cow by its nose print, a man by his finger prints, and a little child by the blood resemblance to the father. They had to rely on mere resemblance in old days.

The blood test would cause much trouble were it not for the fact that women are so much better than men.

President Lowell of Harvard tells graduates to "think clearly, not as the crowd does, but think for themselves."

Excellent advice, but not one in ten thousand can follow it. And thinking for themselves is harder for college men than other men, because during college years young minds are poured into a mold. It takes a strong mind to break the mold and choose its own shape.

Lincoln was "thinking for himself" when he said, "If slavery is not wrong, nothing is wrong." Such thinking for yourself develops in the solitude of the country more than in the crowd of the university.

In various cities drinking fountains are installed, "to make horses happy in hot weather."

The way to prove that you sympathise with suffering animals is not to establish drinking fountains, but to replace your horses with motor trucks. The motor truck has done more for suffering horses than all kind-hearted societies and individuals combined.

Runyon Tells Of 'Dapper Dan'

BY DAMON RUNYON

His ever-loving gal, blond, petite, was beside him on the slanting deck. His little quarter-inch mustache was waxed just so. He was groomed to the fineness of the hair on a frog's back.

As he watched the spray flying from the snout of the Nomad, like vapor breathed from the nostrils of a horse on a cold day, "Dapper Dan," with casual gesture, drew his $1,000 cigarette case from his pocket, and lighted an imported pill.

Eight hundred and fifty cases of good old Johnny Walker Scotch whisky in the hold below, and Philadelphia just ahead. "Dapper Dan" Collins was a happy man as the Nomad neared port.

The Nomad, long, low, lead-colored and sinister looking, now rides at anchor in the Delaware River, just off the clubhouse of the exclusive Corinthian Yacht Club of Philadelphia. I had a look at her the other day.

The Allegro, the gorgeous boat owned by "Jimmy" Elverso, owner of the Philadelphia Inquirer, is tethered not far away. Scores of other handsome pleasure boats rock to the twists of the tide within a few yards of the Nomad.

The lead colored craft could tell a story of weird adventure to its respectable companions. It was ruthlessly seized by the Government after its run out of the Bahamas as a maritime bootlegger, and sold to a citizen who intends making a yacht out of it.

The Nomad was originally a submarine chaser, fast as a bullet. "Dapper Dan" Collins of New York, young, suave, good-looking, that small mustache ever in perfect order, bought the boat from the Government after the war for something like $4,500. With a crew of eight men and his ever-loving gal aboard he went down to the Bahamas and packed the Nomad full of Johnny Walker.

He took with him his wardrobe, two dozen suits of clothes made by the highest priced Fifth avenue tailors, scores of silk shirts, shoes, ties and other sartorial equipment befitting a gentleman adventurer. From his impeccable attire Collins got his nickname of "Dapper Dan." He has also been known as "Rats," from his initials, R. A. T., for "Dapper Dan's" right name is neither Dan nor Collins.

Johnny Walker cost him about $32 per case to lay it down in Philadelphia. The Nomad burned up $2,250 worth of gasoline.

One snowy night last Winter the Nomad eased alongside a dilapidated wharf not so far from the City Hall of Philadelphia that a taxicab couldn't get there under $3.50, even at Philadelphia rates, and there the Johnny Walker, neatly sacked, was unloaded, and passed about over the countryside.

Some of it evaporated as it passed through the hands of the unloaders, to be sure, such evaporation being among the many vicissitudes which beset a gin-juggler, but there was enough left to net "Dapper Dan" a fair profit at $80 per case.

Divested of its unlawful cargo, the Nomad ran into Camden. There the revenue men, who had been searching for it high and low, found the boat.

Someone once said that it is the hardest job in the world to find honest partners for a dishonest deal. It appears that certain rascally members of the Nomad's crew had stolen some of the Johnny Walker, and hid it on the boat for their own use. The revenuers found this liquor, and it gave them a handle by which to seize the Nomad.

They went looking for "Dapper Dan," too, but Dan remained in Philadelphia until he had disposed of his stock of goods, and then passed on over to London. His name has since been connected, in the newspapers, with many nefarious enterprises with which "Dapper Dan" could not possibly have had any concern, unless he has the faculty of being in two different places at one and the same time, but of course Dan has manifested some reserve in coming forward to deny the rumors.

There is one thing however, that caused him deep bereavement, and some indignation. When the Nomad was grabbed they took most of his wardrobe, and his $1,000 cigarette case.

As for the ever-loving gal, blond, petite, that is neither here nor there, nor anywhere in particular. Mind your business.

"SEEIN' THINGS"

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Dear Sir: Your reply to my letter published in your today's issue would have been regarded as conclusive but for the following facts:

Several months ago two prisoners, Norman and Muncie, escaped from the American jail and for some weeks one of them was at large and his whereabouts had baffled the local police authorities. Yet at that time neither you nor the police thought it was necessary to appeal to his religious affiliation. In what way are "the racial characteristics of the Jew more distinctive than those of other races"? If that is your view then every man of every race and religion has some "distinctive" features and therefore in each and every case there should be no discrimination practiced. I plead again for a square deal, no more and no less. I am, etc.,

MENTOR.

Editor's Note: When an escaped criminal is a member of the Jewish race the fact is nearly always mentioned in police circulars. This is so, because as we stated yesterday, the facial and racial characteristics of the Jews are more distinctive than those of other races. You can seldom tell merely by looking at a man whether he is English, Scottish, Irish, American, Spanish, Italian, French or Russian, Anglican, Catholic, Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian or Holy Roller, but nearly always you can tell off hand if a man is Jewish. Does our correspondent dispute this? And isn't it a compliment to his race?

A Surgeon's Proofs Of Man's Evolution

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS

Eminent Astronomer and Authority on Subjects of Scientific Interest.

In view of the war that has recently been reopened by certain theologians and others on the teaching of human evolution, it is noteworthy that, at the recent commencement of the Crozer Theological Seminary, in Chester, Pa., Dr. W. W. Keen, the Philadelphia surgeon, was asked to make the principal address, and that he chose for his subject, "Surgical and Anatomical Evidence of Evolution."

Dr. Keen has made special studies of the brain of the lower animals and of man, and his most striking proofs of the evolutional relationship of man to the other animals were those growing out of these brain studies.

There is in the brain of man, and also of the lower animals up to the anthropoid ape, a deep furrow running obliquely downward and forward above the ear. It is called the "fissure of Rolando." Experiments with animal brains have revealed the fact that grouped around the fissure of Rolando there are a number of aggregations of nerve cells in the gray matter of the brain, which are known as "motor centers," because if one of them is stimulated by an electric current it produces motion in some definite part of the body, but never elsewhere.

There is, for instance, a motor center for the leg, another for the arm, another for the face, another for the fingers, and so on. These centers have been exactly mapped out on the animal brain, and it has been found that "in the human brain the location of the corresponding motor centers is a duplicate of those in the brains of animals."

Now for a proof. A young woman suffering from violent epileptic attacks came to Dr. Keen. She told him that attacks always began in her left thumb, then spread to the hand, then to the arm, after which unconsciousness and convulsions followed. Having satisfied himself that her description was correct, the doctor, knowing from his studies that the human thumb corresponds with the great toe of the forefoot of animals, opened the patient's skull over a point agreeing with the location of the great toe motor center in the animal brain, and cut out a little cube of brain substance.

Note the result. There are no less than nine muscles moving the thumb, and so exactly had the excision of the proper motor center been made, that every one of those nine muscles in the patient was paralyzed, and not another muscle of any kind was affected. The epileptic attacks, which had occurred daily, now recurred only about once in a year, and in a few months the patient even regained full control over her thumb.

Remember that the point of this is that it was the precise identity of location and of function between the motor center in the brain of a lower animal and a similar center in the human brain that guided the surgeon in his operation. That certainly looks like very close physical relationship!

Another highly significant case was cited by Dr. Keen. A midshipman in the Naval Academy was injured in a football game. There was no fracture of the skull, but soon after the accident he developed local convulsions, first in the right leg and later and chiefly in the right arm, but never in the face. The only evidence of a local injury was a slight bruise at the outer end of the left eyebrow.

"Had I seen this case," said Dr. Keen, "prior to 1885—when I first made a careful study of the motor centers in the brain—I should have followed, of course, only the visible indication of the location of the injury to the brain, namely, the bruise. Had I opened his skull near the bruise I should have been confronted with a perfectly normal brain. I should then have been compelled to close the wound and have perforce done nothing more. He would have died within two or three days.

"But experiments on animals after 1885 had shown that above the ear and a little in front of it lay the centers controlling the muscles of the face, the arm, and the leg from below upward, the leg center being near the top of the head. As there was no fracture of the skull and as the convulsions began first in the leg and then concentrated chiefly in the arm, but never extended to the face, my diagnosis was a rupture of the large artery on the surface of the brain over these motor centers; that the escaping blood had formed a clot, the edge of which first overlapped the leg center, but that the chief mass lay over the arm center. I felt sure that it had not yet receded downwards over the motor centers controlling the muscles of the face. Evidently the clot must be immediately removed or he would quickly die."

The skull was opened, and the clot found, placed exactly as predicted. The recovery was uninterrupted and the patient re-entered the navy.

The reader is likely to be as much interested in this sketch of a great surgeon's conduct on a critical battlefield of science as is the evidence afforded of the close relationship of man to his lower relatives.

And equally interesting is the doctor's final declaration that in his opinion, although man is an animal, "his destiny is not the same as that of the beasts that perish."

W.H.C. SUPER-DURABLE FLAT PAINT

FLAT WALL FINISH

A perfect Paint of smooth surface for Interior Wall Coating

The surface obtainable with this paint is smooth and flat, i.e., it is not a grainy, dead, lifeless finish, but of a velvety texture. It dries in a reasonably quick time, so that work can be carried out effectively, yet has the property of remaining open long enough to enable the worker to cover a large surface of wall without making laps or edges.

Excellent results with Super Durable Flat Finish are easily obtained, irrespective of the skill of the user, and an elaborate preparation of the surface is usually quite unnecessary.

Super Durable Flat Finish has been tried on non-absorbent surfaces of all kinds and where distemper and oil paint have proved prone to shell or flake off, it has always adhered. It gives a lasting finish of surprising beauty.

1 Imperial Gallon covers about 130 square yards one coat.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy and retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Chas. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria

Physicians Recommend Castoria.

"I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."
J. E. SIMPSON, M. D., Chicago, Ill.

"A medicine so valuable and beneficial for children as your Castoria is deserves the highest praise. I find it in use everywhere."
J. S. ALEXANDER, M. D., Omaha, Neb.

"Have used your Castoria on various occasions in suitable cases and have found it a palatable and efficient laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood."
CHAS. EDWARD GARDINER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result."
F. GERALD BLATTNER, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble."
C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo.

"Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children."
J. A. BEARMAN, M. D., Kansas City, Mo.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

July 21, 1922

Spot bar silver was up 5/8d and forward 1/4d in London yesterday.

The New York priced advanced to 70 cents and the London-New York cross rate to 445½.

At the opening the official rates here today were unchanged from yesterday but as the market was on the firm side the Sterling T.T. rate was subsequently advanced to 3-5½, the Gold Dollar rate to 77, the Yen rate dropped to 62½ and the other rates changed accordingly.

The market in the early part of the morning was on the firm side though it eased off somewhat during the day.

At one time business in Sterling was done as high as 3-6 and in Gold Dollars at 78 although even when the market was at its strongest there were good buyers at these rates.

In the afternoon some business in Sterling was done at 3s. 5 1/32d. and in Gold Dollars at 77¾. There were, however, generally sellers at these rates with buyers at 3s.5 7/8d. and 77⅞ respectively. The market closed steady.

There was a good demand for Francs today, some business in Franc T. T. being done at 932 and four months bills at 955.

However there were few bills of any kind offering today.

Speculators bought silver in London yesterday.

The market is reported as closing steady.

New York quote their market as firm.
